About the Quinn Center of St. Eulalia

The Quinn Center of St. Eulalia (Quinn Center) is a ministry of St. Eulalia Catholic Church (Maywood, IL) that was founded in 2010 to address social justice concerns and outreach to a diverse Proviso community. Named after Monsignor William Quinn, a former pastor of St. Eulalia, the Center continues his legacy of community engagement, empowerment and growth. The mission of the Quinn Center is to partner with the people of Proviso to build an inclusive culture of justice, health and peace through intentional action.

The Quinn Center Summer Enrichment Program is a beacon of hope in Proviso Township providing quality programming for youth and teenagers. This 4-week, full-day, low-cost program serves approximately 150 students in grades 1-8 and provides a variety of enrichment experiences from science and math to Peruvian dance and 21st Century technological skills. The camp also serves a critical role in stimulating the local economy through employment. High-school teens are hired to support the summer camp operation as camp counselors. The programs also hires more than a dozen teachers and local organizations to provide the enrichment classes as part of the summer program. Parents consistently highlight the Summer Program's role in providing structure and support to their families and to the Proviso community.
